

Do you like reading? Discussing characters? Expanding your horizons? Yummy homemade treats?!

The Boothbay Harbor Memorial Library wants to start up a monthly book group that meets in St. Andrews Village this Fall.

Please join us for a flagship meeting of:

Books & Bites

in St. Andrews Village

Wednesday, October 25 at 10:00 AM

In the Common Area

Meet Meg Donaldson, the reader-extraordinaire and Books & Bites facilitator, to talk about which title to start with, decide the best time for the group to meet; and discuss other books people would like to read. Baked goods provided by Meg!

If you have any questions, contact Meg at the Boothbay Harbor Memorial Library.

We will choose one of these books to start the group with:

THE ROAD TO CHARACTER by David Brooks

MAN CALLED OVE by Fredrik Backman

LILAC GIRLS by Martha Hall Kelly

AMERICANAH by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie
